

Privacy Notice

1. Contact information for privacy matters

If you have any questions regarding your personal data, feel free to contact our Data Privacy Team via personaldata@interlogic.com.ua.

2. Sources of your personal data

InterLogic may collect and process information that

- you personally provided to us in hard copies, sent by email or through messengers to our representatives
- we generate internally during the performance of a contract between you and InterLogic
- you provide during interaction with our websites, through cookies and web forms
- we obtain from third parties, integrated services, or recruitment agencies
- we obtain from open sources, social media sources, or public websites

InterLogic will not process your personal data if such is prohibited by applicable data protection laws or regulations.

3. Purposes of processing

InterLogic processes your personal data linked to particular purposes and corresponding legal bases outlined below:

- purposes to which you agree in a consent form
- for the fulfillment of the contract as further specified in our contracts with Specialists, clients, and Externals
- in order to comply with legal obligations specified in a particular law or regulation
- legitimate interests pursued by InterLogic, except where such interests are overridden by your interests or fundamental rights and freedoms

Please read the relevant section below for further information. Please consider that you may belong to more than one category.

In case InterLogic is planning to change the purpose of processing to such that is incompatible with the original one, we will contact you to provide you with further information on purposes for processing prior to it taking place, at all times ensuring appropriate legal basis for processing, which may include asking for your additional consent.

InterLogic does not process your personal data for automated decision-making, including profiling.

4. Recipients of personal data

InterLogic Group consists of the following entities: InterLogic Danmark ApS (Denmark), InterLogic Poland Sp. z o.o. (Poland), InterLogic TzOV (Ukraine).

All your personal data will be kept strictly confidential and will not be disclosed to unauthorized third parties or made public without your prior notification by this notice or in person. InterLogic will not transfer your personal data internationally without reasonably ensuring that your rights and freedoms as the data subject are protected.

We never sell your data or share it with other third parties in order to obtain direct or indirect financial gains.

To obtain information about third-party recipients of your personal data, please read the relevant section below. Please consider that you may belong to more than one category. If you need further assistance, please contact our Data Privacy Team via personaldata@interlogic.com.ua.

5. Where InterLogic stores your personal data

We use a variety of security technologies and procedures to help protect your personal data from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. We secure the personal data you provide on computer servers in a controlled, secure environment, protected from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. All personal data is protected using appropriate physical, technical, and organizational measures. InterLogic entities are certified with international standard ISO/IEC 27001:2013 and regularly updated to comply with industry best practices.

Please mind that transmission of information via the Internet (including by email) is not completely secure, and, although InterLogic will do its best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your data in transfer. Accordingly, please proceed with any such transmission at your own risk.

InterLogic uses third-party service providers, some of which are located outside of the European Union. This means that we may transfer personal information to countries outside of the European Union. When we do, we ensure that an adequate level of protection is provided for the information by following the requirements of the European Commission, local data protection legislation and the GDPR in the countries where InterLogic has offices:

- We may transfer personal information to countries that have privacy laws that have been recognized by the country from which the data are transferred as providing similar protections for the data ('adequacy decision')
- We may rely on other transfer mechanisms approved by authorities in the country from which the data are transferred
- We may seek your consent for transfers of your personal information for specific purposes

When we transfer your information outside of the European Union, we make sure that the service provider is maintaining appropriate security measures to protect your personal information.

6. Storage period

We store your personal data for a limited period of time, which varies depending on the type of data, the purposes of the processing, legal requirements, and the duration of the contractual relationship with InterLogic.

To obtain information about the storage period of your personal data, please read the relevant section below. Please consider that you may belong to more than one category. If you need further assistance, please contact our Data Privacy Team via personaldata@interlogic.com.ua.

7. Your rights

As a data subject you have the following rights:

- right to obtain information in relation to your personal data
- right to access your personal data
- right to data portability
- right to withdraw the consent
- right to correct mistakes in your personal data
- right to stop the unwarranted processing
- right to be forgotten (erase your personal data)
- right to be aware of the existence of the automated individual decision-making and to object in this regard
- right to lodge a complaint to a supervisory authority
